

Swimmer Dislocates Shoulder, Infant Drinks Laundry Bleach

By SONNIE TOMCHAK
FR 5-5662

George Walker of 4833 Highgrove Ave. was swimming in the surf off Redondo Beach last Wednesday when he dislocated his shoulder. He doesn't know how the injury occurred but the result was very painful and he was forced to remain home from work for several days. The shoulder will have to remain strapped for from four to six weeks, according to the attending doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Sullivan of 4539 Highgrove Ave., are vacationing for two weeks in Menasha, Wis. They are staying with Mrs. Sullivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Adams.

Mr. Carl Weber, of 4714 Highgrove Ave., is spending several weeks in Oswego, Ore., with his mother, Carl is taking his vacation preparatory to returning to his position as teacher at Dana Junior High School in San Pedro.

A sad note from Ellinwood's ball team. On Friday the 20th the team played the same high school boys team which they had so gloriously defeated the previous Friday but luck wasn't with our team this time. It made a long, painful story short, Ellinwood lost 19 to 3.

Two-year-old Nevin Fosterling was honored with a birthday party at her home at 4532 Green Meadows, on Wednesday, Aug. 25. Attending were both sets of grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fosterling and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hough. Also present were playmates Marjorie and Ricky Newkirk, and Linda and Ricky Peterson. Nevin's daddy, John Fosterling, was intent on taking movies of the gala occasion but Nevin was almost too anxious to cooperate. She blew out the candles three times before daddy finally got the scene recorded.

THIRSTY FOR PLEASURE?

To be happy is the ideal of all mankind; lustful pleasure is a part of human beings that has only one ending — defeat. Pleasure at the expense of honor, is silly; pleasure as a goal is metaphysical, has no substance, has been followed to doom.

To give pleasure is an art, an art that reflects, gives back pleasure for pleasure. We see it as a dad takes his son to a ball game, a mother making jam or jelly, a cake or new dress for daughter. It is obvious when son buys a little gift for mother with money being courteous to a salesperson, a contrite, sincerely honest apology, a host making his guests feel at home. Pleasure, in itself, causes misery, tears and disillusionment while giving pleasure to others returns an abundance of joy to the giver.

To be happy, give pleasure to someone else. It never fails. Works everytime. If you're thirsty for pleasure give the cup to another; it's an Open Sesame to happiness, that lasts.

Mr. Walt Palmer, of 4638 Pacific Coast Hwy., spent last week in San Diego on business. Mr. Palmer, who works for the Schenley Company, spent the week doing display work in the southern city.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Mary Brislin, 4508 Highgrove Ave., included her aunts Mrs. Shirley Fowler and Mrs. Ann Sabert with Mrs. Sabert's daughter, Emmy. They left after a week's visit for their home in Syracuse, N. Y. Also at the Brislin home is Mrs. Bea Kelly, Mary's mother, who is making her home here at the present.

The Don Penningtons, who reside at 4318 Highgrove Ave., have been enjoying the company of numerous relatives for the past several weeks. The first to arrive were Bob Pennington, brother of Don, with his wife, Emmy. They arrived on Aug. 16 and stayed until the 20th. Both Bob and Emmy are teachers in Bakersfield. A few days later the Penningtons were delighted to welcome an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Allen, 4370 Newton; Mr. Ralph Shrader, 4318 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. Jackson, 4421 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gung, 4427 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Yates, 4433 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. David R.

Within the past few weeks a whole new section of Ellinwood has opened up. The new street is the fourth from the highway running parallel to it, and is named Newton Ave. The rumbling of moving vans has been hot and heavy over this street and following is a list of some of our new neighbors who have moved in during the past two weeks: Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Allen, 4370 Newton; Mr. Ralph Shrader, 4318 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. Jackson, 4421 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Gung, 4427 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Yates, 4433 Newton; Mr. and Mrs. David R.
